1. My name's Bill Harris. I was in the 112th Airborne Signal Battalion from 1943 to 1946. 2. I went through Jump School down at Fort Benning, Georgia, and then I was er... transferred to Camp Mackall, North Carolina. 3. And I... I wasn't supposed to go into town during the... during that time because we were on manoeuvres but I slipped off one day and went into town and had my picture made, and I was going to send it home to my mother. 4. And er... I missed the bus back to camp that evening, and somebody told me they were er... having a dance, er... the er... USO was having a dance. 5. So that's where I went- I went- I went to kill some time at the USO. 6. And I saw this girl out on the dance floor dancing. 7. And er... when the dance was over I went to the other room where the er... coke bar was and invited her in to have a coke. 8. And we got to talking, and er... to make a long story short, her and I were married that night, March the tenth, nineteen forty four. 9. And we were married for sixty-five years. 10. And er... that's where I met my wife, and that's how I met her.	1. My name's Bill Harris. _____ 112th Airborne Signal Battalion _____ 1943 _____ 1946. 2.
